

↳ In black & white: Marco Segato & Anju Dutta

THE AFFAIR

Launch of an international luxury yacht brand

D. D. V.
 Tuesday,
 December 18,
 Taj Chambers
 terrace

↳ Sari tales: Arti Surendranath

↳ Dressed to impress? Feroze Gujral

Prashant Jadhav

Everyone's on board

↳ All tied up: Kallash Surendranath

↳ Ethnic twist: Kaykasshan Patel

↳ East meets West? Raja & Queenie Dhody

THE JUICE

A popular international luxury yacht that is one of the most sought-after status symbols, was officially unveiled on Tuesday night. Louis Banks played a special symphony for the show, which was accompanied by dazzling fireworks. Feroze Gujral looked stunning in her white gown and was heard saying she enjoyed her spin aboard the yacht earlier in the day. It almost looked as if the dress code for the ladies was the sari, as most of them showed up draped in the garment. The men, however, chose to go the western way. We loved Laila Lamba's black saree with a red and orange feathered border. Queenie Dhody and Ramona Narang were seen chatting up a storm. Vinod and Archana Mittal, Rohit Bai, Kaykasshan and Arif Patel were among other guests who enjoyed an elaborate four-course dinner that rounded up the evening.

↳ Colour me haute: Rohit Bai & Ramona Narang

↳ Go bilin: Laila & Ricky Lamba