What do you do when you've got it all and want to escape it all? Do what the filthy rich and the fabulously famous do. Hop aboard your yacht and exclusivity is yours.

Delhi-based socialite Feroze Gujral boarded one and came away impressed. She was in the city and aboard a Ferretti yacht anchored off the Gateway of India, a special guest of Marine Solutions, that launched the brand in India. Here's what she thought...

Your experience.
The yachts are very well designed. They have beautiful lines, are very well constructed, can hold nine people: six passengers and three crew members. A great mid-size option for first-timers.

Consider buying a yacht in the near future?
Definitely. Also, they now service yachts here, spare parts are available and so is technical assistance.

Will the industry grow?
We've already got the fancy cars, what do you do after that? It's a futuristic business.
